1998 USAREUR Photography Contest

Living in Europe can offer many great photo opportunities. And if you have taken a picture worth a thousand words, then the 1998 U.S. Army Europe Photography Contest may be just what you're looking for.

To be eligible you must be active-duty military, a family member, Department of Defense civilian or U.S. Army Reserve soldier assigned to European Command.

Photographs taken in the line of duty are ineligible for the contest, as are entries snapped before Oct. 16, 1996, or after October 1998. Pictures can be entered in one of the following categories and each entry must include a specific title: Category A, military life; Category B, Morale, Welfare and Recreation; Category C, people; Category D, nature/scenic; Category E, creative effects.

Your photo can be submitted in a monochrome print, color print, color transparency or video tape format. Prints should be submitted in a minimum of 34 square inches (5X7) to a maximum of 480 square inches (20X24). Local judging will be held in September. Winners will go on to participate in the USAREUR contest in October. For contest specifics call the Robinson Barracks Arts and Photo Center at 0711-819-6038.

ACS Happenings

Army Community Service offers many activities for community members. It features training, special seminars, job hunting assistance and much more. Look for some of the ACS activities in the Stuttgart Community Post each week. They are usually featured in the community, education and job sections. Below are just a few of the activities currently offered:

Moms Together: Join ACS for Moms Together (dads are welcome too!). It is an educational support group for parents with young children from birth to 5 years of age. Weekly topics include raising good children, children's growth and development, nurturing your family while taking care of yourself, basic life support, first aid and much more. The group meets Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon at the Robinson Barracks Chapel Annex and on Thursdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Patch Youth Services. Childcare is provided on site.

Love & Logic Night Out: Attention all Love and Logic parents: let's get together on a regular basis to share our suggestions, successes and frustrations. The first meeting will be a potluck held at Patch ACS on Sept. 15 at 6:30 p.m. To take part, call Gail Kirkpatrick at 07031-287161.

Stepparent Group: Attention stepparents: ACS would like to offer a place for you to meet and form a support group.

Inter-Racial Couple Group: If you are an inter-racial couple interested in meeting others who share your special perspective call ACS.

ACS is located on Patch Barracks in building 2307 on the second floor. Call them for information about these topics or other programs at 0711-680-7176.

PWOC Meeting

The Panzer Chapel Protestant Women of the Chapel presents its fall study Becoming a Woman of Grace by Cynthia Heald. It begins Sept. 15 from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall at Panzer Chapel. ## EDUCATION & TRAINING

Red Cross Classes

The American Red Cross in Stuttgart will be conducting the following classes:

Healthy Pregnancy, Healthy Baby training course Sept. 17 through Oct. 22. The course is on Thursdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The course fee is $20, which includes materials and workbook. This training course is more than a preparation for labor course. It provides education about pre-natal care, labor and birth, and immediate care of the mother and the newborn.

Basic Aid Training Instructor course will be held Sept. 22, 24, and 29 from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Kelley YS. The course fee is $5, which includes materials and workbook. This course introduces children ages 8 to 10 to safety information and first aid procedures for breathing difficulties, bleeding, poisoning, burns, shock, and other emergencies;

Community First Aid and Safety is offered on Sept. 26 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. The course fee includes materials and workbook. This training course also meets the first aid requirements for the German government for issuance of a German driver's license.

The ARC is offering your teenager the opportunity to become trained and certified in babysitting. The Red Cross Babysitting course helps youth learn to use a job description, interview for a job, and develop job skills. This course prepares teenagers for what is usually their first job. Babysitting is a responsible job that involves handling emergencies, selecting safe toys and games, supervising children, feeding and dressing infants. The classes take place on Sept. 22 and 24 from 4 to 9 p.m. The course fee is $20, which includes materials and workbook

Classes will be conducted at the American Red Cross Office on Panzer Kaserne. Pre-course registration is required and class size is limited. For registration and further information contact the ARC in building 2949 on Panzer Kaserne. Call the office at 07031-15-818/812.

Tobacco Cessation Class

The next tobacco cessation class begins Sept. 16 and will meet weekly through Oct. 21. This class is for those who want to free themselves of tobacco and are ready for an opportunity to improve their health. Class will meet for six Wednesdays beginning Sept. 16 from 5 to 6 p.m. in the Patch Health Clinic conference room. Call 0711-680-8610/8612 to register for the next class.

ENTERTAINMENT

Stuttgart Theater

Christmas play auditions for The Best Christmas Pageant Ever will be held Oct. 1 at 7 p.m. for adults and Oct. 3 at 1 p.m. for youth ages 6 to 16. This wonderful Christmas tale brings to life a husband and wife team, along with their two children, who attempt to pull together the annual Christmas pageant in their small town church. Of course utter chaos is created when the town bullies decide to audition, producing mayhem and pandemonium at every turn. This is a great show for kids of all ages. There are singing and non-singing roles available. A prepared piece is not necessary. Those wishing to audition for a solo part will be taught a song from the show and asked to sing it individually.

The Stuttgart Entertainment is now accepting enrollment in its expanded music education classes. With the addition of a new teacher, lessons are available in piano, singing and flute. For more info on any of the listings call the Stuttgart Entertainment Branch, 0711-729-2796, or visit them at building 3320 on Kelley Barracks.
